I wonder if you should wait 60 days to find out what they are worried about. Suggest you return to IG with note:

"Should I wait 60 days to hear more about this?"

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Donald F. Chamberlain
Inspector GeneralSUBJECT : Survey of the Domestic Collection
Division (DCD)

1. We have recently completed the second Inspector General survey of the post-investigatory period. Copies of this Survey of the Domestic Collection Division have been forwarded to the DDO for his comments. Concurrence or reasons for nonconcurrence with the survey recommendations are expected within sixty days. A copy of the survey is available upon request.

2. Overall we found that the DCD operates effectively and that its officers generally have a good understanding of their roles and the bounds within which they work. Although for the most part we believe there are no serious problems with the legality and propriety of DCD's activities, we did encounter some concern and uncertainty in certain areas and have recommended that Chief, DCD, obtain formal legal opinions from the Office of the General Counsel on these specific activities.

3. We also have made recommendations which, we believe, will improve DCD's reporting effectiveness without unduly disrupting normal operating procedures. The intent of these recommendations is to achieve better control of requirements levied on DCD through use of more senior and experienced personnel.
